NEWS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE LINCOLN SKY KNIGHTS R/C CLUB

President's Message

In the past several years there has been a trend in the type of aircraft showing up at the field. This isn't bad or good it is just a change. First the ARFs started showing up then the bind and fly and now not only bind and fly but completely set up and ready to do their stuff straight from the box. Kind of cool in a way, but it has got me wondering... Will it get to the point that there is so much prefab that there isn't much point in our having a hobby? Some will argue that I'm old-fashioned. That may be true, but I'm sure there is still a place for those modelers that still build what they fly. A case and point here, I was searching on eBay for 72 MHz receivers and came across a kit for a Sig Ninja. I haven't seen that kit for close to twenty years. There were thirteen bids on it at the time I saw it. So for giggles I started looking up vintage kits. WOW there are a lot of old kits plane and helicopter both for sale and are being purchased on R/C groups, Craigslist, and eBay. So maybe some of the old stuff isn't so far out there. I guess it all comes down to one thing... Creativity. We love to fly, but flying in itself may not be the outlet we need. In steps the building board and away we go with a new project. Awe now that is much better, whether it is something we designed and fly or something we assembled and put in the air a need has been met and our lives are better for it. I love watching the model of the month segment of our club meetings, I can only hope it gets better with each month. Quadcopter to old timer they are all exciting and bring a wealth of entertainment and satisfaction to each of us. So until next time not only keep flying, but see what you can build that isn't just like everyone else's.

He is willing to stay on and keep up with the bills but won't be able to make meetings and pay bills that club members bring to the meeting in person.

FUN FLY

Saturday July 11th we had our make-up Fun Fly. We had 25-30 pilots show up and the wind was blowing right down the runway. We had a good number of spectators that also came to the event. One of the highlights of the fun fly was the food. I went and got some buns, chips, burgers and Wayne Nguyen's wife (Marivic) said she would run home and make us some shrimp fried rice. When she returned she brought a large container of shrimp fried rice, a pasta dish with chicken, a salmon fillet, and even cut up a watermelon for us. We ate like kings and queens. Some of the guys commented the food was better than any restaurant they have eaten at. Thank you Marivic and Wayne. Maybe the Fun Fly on the Fly is not a bad idea.
